Friends and Family

Perform America, TX will be offering a travel package for friends and family of The Pride of Pearland Band. This travel package will be available to anyone interested and is not limited to current families of band members.

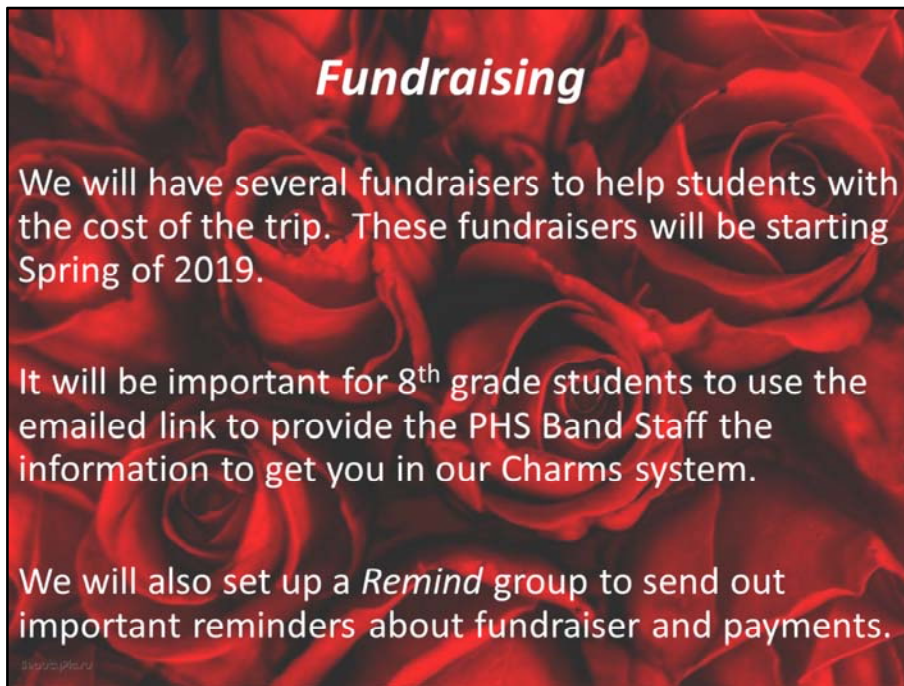

The friends and family travel package will not include airfare to California, but will include ground transportation via charter bus in California. The itinerary will shadow that of The Pride of Pearland Band. All event tickets and most food will be included in the trip fee. Hotel accommodations will be at a separate hotel comparable to the student hotel.

Friends and Family

We will have a meeting in January to provide the details of the Friends and Family trip.

It will be important for the PHS Band Staff to receive your information to get you setup in our Charms system. We use this system as our primary resource for information and communication.

Please use this url to enter your child's information so that we can get you setup in Charms.

We will also have a Remind group setup. We will use this to send out reminders about important information and deadlines.
